From Tuesday June 24. to Saturday June 28. 1740.

At the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 26th Day of June 1740.

P R E S E N T,

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council.

Their Excellencies the Lords Justices in Council were this Day pleased to order, That the Parliament which stands prorogued to Tuesday the Eighth of July next, should be further prorogued to Tuesday the Nineteenth Day of August following.

Whereas by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm, all Forestalling, Regrating, and Ingrossing of Corn is prohibited, and it is by the Act of the Fifth and Sixth of Edward the Sixth particularly enacted, That when Corn or Grain is above the Prices in the said Act for that Purpose mentioned, whosoever shall ingross or get into his Hands by Buying, Contracting, or Promise, taking other than by Demise, Grant, or Lease of Land or Tythes, any Corn growing in the Fields, or any other Corn or Grain, to the Intent to sell again, excepting Badgers, Laders, Kidders and Carriers licenced by three Justices of the Peace for that Purpose, or where the same is bought to make into Malt or Oatmeal, or to victual Ships, Forts or Castles in the King's Dominions, or for Transportation by Water from one Part of the Realm to another, by Persons licenced for that Purpose by three Justices, and on the Terms therein mentioned, shall be deemed an unlawful Ingrosser, and shall suffer Imprisonment for two Months for the first Offence, half a Year for the Second, and for the Third, the Pillory, and Forfeit all his Goods and Chattels, and be imprisoned during the King's Pleasure. And whereas their Excellencies the Lords Justices have been informed, That tho' the Prices of Corn are raised to a great Height, far beyond the Prices in the said Act mentioned, divers ill disposed Persons, for their private Lucre, do presume to buy up and ingross great Quantities of Corn and Grain, in order to export and sell the same beyond the Seas, contrary to the said Laws, and to the great Oppression of the Poor.— Their Excellencies, by and with the Advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, have thought fit, in order to prevent the many Inconveniencies that may arise to the Publick by the Scarcity of Corn and Grain, to order, That all the Laws relating to Forestalling, Regrating, and Ingrossing of Corn, and particularly the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth of Edward the Sixth, be strictly observed, and effectually carried into Execution. And to the Intent that all Persons who shall break the same, may be discovered, do order, that the Commissioners and Officers of the Customs at the several Ports of this Kingdom, do take care, when any Corn or Grain shall be brought to be entered for Exportation, to inform themselves by the best Ways and Means they can, of the Names and Places of Abode of the Persons so bringing the same, or making such Entry, and of the Places from whence the Corn or Grain is brought, and who is the true Owner thereof, and whether the same be really the Growth of the Land of the Person exporting, or bought of any other Persons, and to give an Account immediately of such Particulars to two or more Justices of the Peace of the County, Place or Division, where such Entry is made, to the End such Persons may be apprehended and proceeded against according to Law, in case they shall not appear to be within some of the said excepted Cases out of the said Act. And that the Commissioners do also forthwith send their Orders and Directions to the Officers of the several Ports of this Kingdom for the Purposes beforementioned, and requiring them to use their utmost Endeavours in putting this Order in due and strict Execution. And the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions to the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs accordingly. And their Excellencies have thought fit, by and with the Advice of his Majesty's Privy Council, to order, that the Custodes Rotulorum of the several Counties and Divisions in England and Wales, do recommend it in the strongest Manner to the Justices of the Peace in their respective Counties and Divisions, that they do, in their respective Places and Jurisdictions, cause the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth of Edward the Sixth, and all other the Laws against the Forestalling, Regrating, and Ingrossing Corn and Grain, to be speedily and effectually carried into Execution, and that they do take care that no Licence be granted to any Badger, Lader, Kidder, Carrier, or Buyer of Corn or Grain, but according to the Directions of the said Act of the Fifth and Sixth of Edward the Sixth, and other the Acts relating thereto, and that they take care that all Offenders against the said Acts be effectually prosecuted according to Law.

(Price Two Pence.)

Berlin, June 25. All the Foreign Ministers here have put themselves, Servants and Equipages into Mourning upon occasion of the late King's Death. The Day before Count Troughes set out on his Journey to Hanover, he was presented, by the King himself, to Lieutenant General Count Donhoff's Regiment, the Command of which his Majesty has conferr'd on him. The Lieutenant General has had his Dismission on Account of his infirm State of Health: But his Prussian Majesty allows him a Pension of 2500 Dollars a Year, and has promis'd that he will soon provide for his two Sons. Since the Funeral of the late King, which was perform'd at Potsdam on Wednesday last, several other Military Promotions have been made. His Prussian Majesty's Journey to Prussia, in order to receive the Homage of the States of that Country, is fix'd for the 7th of next Month; and the States of this Part of his Prussian Majesty's Dominions are to meet here on the 3d of August, for the same Purpose. Last Night a Fire happen'd in the Town of Spandaw, two German Miles from hence, which, it is said, has done a great deal of Damage.

Hanover, July 1, N. S. Sir Cyril Wych, Bart. his Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Hanse Towns, who has his Majesty's Permission to come hither from his Station at Hambourg for a short Time, arrived here on Wednesday Evening last, and Yesterday paid his Duty to his Majesty at Herenhausen, by whom he was graciously received.

Navy-Office, June 26, 1740.

These are to give Notice, that on Wednesday the 9th of July next, at Ten of the Clock in the Morning, this Board will be ready to treat with such Persons as shall be inclinable to import and serve into his Majesty's several Yards, on Contract, such New England Masts, Breechings and Yards, as may be wanted for the Service of the Navy after the Expiration of the Year 1741, that they may attend with their Proposals accordingly.

General Post Office, March 14, 1739

Whereas the Post-Boy, who was carrying the Worcester Mail from London to Southall, was set upon this Morning about Four of the Clock, between Audley-street End and Tyburn Turnpike, by Two Footpads, one of which was a luffy Man, in a white Cape Coat, who presented a Pistol to the said Boy, and demanding the Oxford Bag, led him into a Field against Audley-street End, opened the Mail, and took thereout the Worcester and Oxford Bags; the Worcester Bag containing the Ludlow, Tenbury, and Bromyard Letters; the Oxford Bag containing the Burford, Whitney, and Woodstock Letters.

The Postmaster General thinks proper to advertise the Publick, that whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, both or either of the Persons who committed the said Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of 200 l. besides the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen.

men. Or if any Person, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery whereby the Persons, or either of them who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be intitled to the same Reward, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Postmaster General.

J. D. Barbutt, Secretary.

General Post Office, April 2, 1740.

Whereas the Post Boy carrying the Bristol Mail from London to Hounslow, was attacked and set upon between Three and Four a Clock this Morning, a little beyond Knightsbridge, by a single Person on Foot, of a dark Complexion, and a middle Stature, having on a light-colour'd Horseman's Coat with the Cape button'd up, who led him into an adjacent Field, and there took from him the Bath and Bristol Bags, put them into a Green Bag, and rode off with them towards London on the Horse that carried the said Mail.

The Postmaster General thinks proper to advertise the Publick, that whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, besides the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Person, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make a Discovery whereby the Person who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward, and also have his Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Postmaster General.
